

The Louisiana Creole Research Association

proudly presents

Josephine Dubuclet Decuir's Journey to Separate but Equal

A Virtual Presentation, Free and Open to the Public

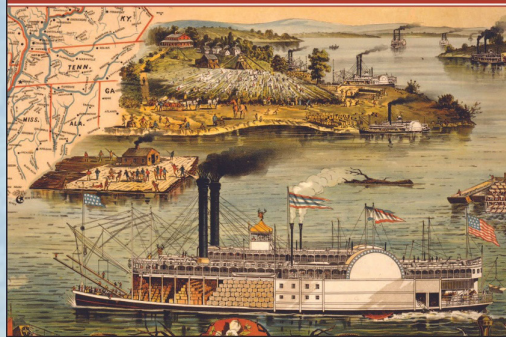

Jack M. Beermann
Author

THE JOURNEY TO SEPARATE BUT EQUAL

Madame Decuir's Quest for Racial Justice in the Reconstruction Era

JACK M. BEERMANN

University Press of Kansas, 2021

Julie Eshelman Lee
Moderator

Saturday, July 31, 2021 2:00-3:30 PM CT

Click HERE to register!

The program will be moderated by Historian Julie Eshelman Lee, the Director of Creole West Productions and will feature Jack M. Beermann, Author of The Journey to Separate But Equal: Madame Decuir's Quest for Racial Justice in the Reconstruction Era.

Please take the opportunity to read the book beforehand.
Copies available at:

- University Press of Kansas
- www.jackbeermann.com (signed copies)
- Amazon
- Barnes and Noble

LA Creole is a 501c3 non-profit tax-exempt organization

www.lacreole.org